

HILO'S DAD

Hilo really likes his creative, whacky Dad.
Read on to see if you like him, too.

Cartoon Barrel Studios!

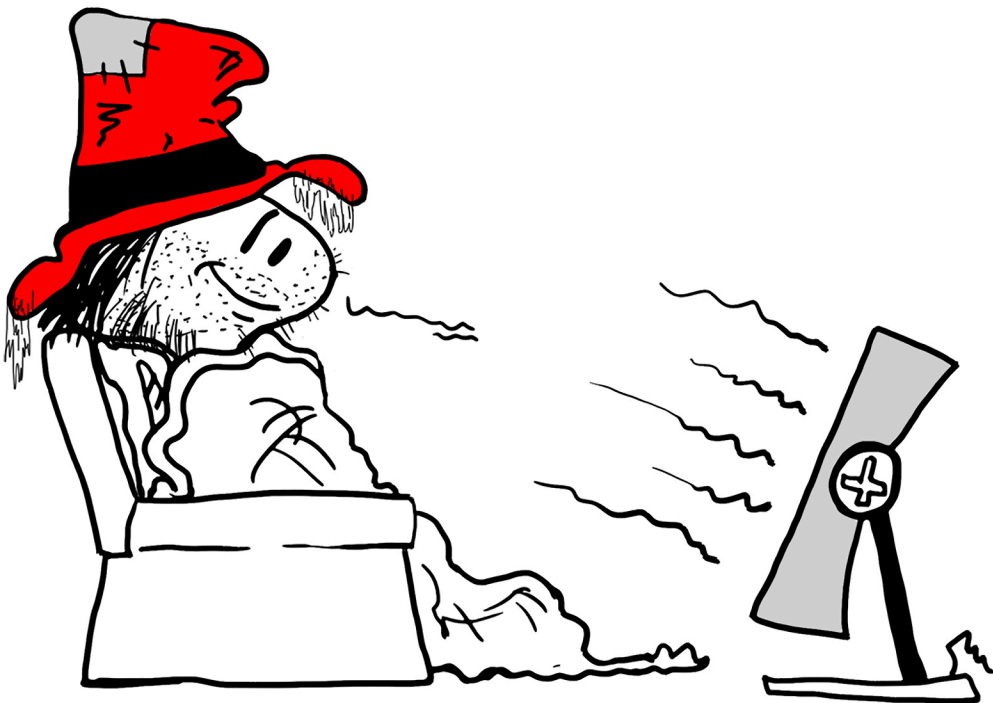

My name is Hilo and this is my Dad.

He isn't this... he isn't that.
It's hard to explain, really.
Just look at his hat.

He needs an electric fan
in every room he goes in.
Even if the heat doesn't work and the fact that he's nearly frozen.

My favorite thing about my Dad is the metamorphical machine he made.

It changes into anything he needs.
Including a drink and some shade.

Crack // Pop
Pop Bang

When I hear that engine
CRACK and POP
BANG and SPIT and SPUTTER...

I run right out the door for excitement like no other.

He's modest about this machine that helps him quite a bunch.
I beg to differ (I told him)
today after lunch.

I miss those days
though my Dad's still here.

It's amazing, too how his metamorphical machine gets better every year.
